

BLUEBEAM® REVU® for Infotech Users

Length: 2 hours
Level: Infotech Product Users
Prerequisites: An account on the Infotech cloud server and experience with Bluebeam Revu
Delivery: Virtual Only
Class Size: Three Student Minimum

DESCRIPTION

We realize that many Infotech subscribers to Appia® and Doc Express® are also Bluebeam Revu users and would like to understand how these technologies can be used together. This two-hour instructor-led virtual class will teach you just that. Building links between the Infotech Products and Bluebeam is possible and easy to do.

CONTENT

Getting Started

- Overview of How Appia Handles PDF Files
- Overview of How Doc Express Handles PDF Files
- Setting Bluebeam Revu as your Default PDF Technology

Adding Appia & Doc Express Links to Bluebeam Revu Web Tabs

- Appia and Bluebeam Co-Existence & Cooperation
- Creating & Managing Appia Links
- Linking to a Bluebeam Studio Session (virtual conference room)
- Linking to a Bluebeam Studio Project (virtual filing cabinet)
- Accessing Bluebeam Managed PDF Files with Revu or Bluebeam Drawings
- Linking to Specific Bluebeam Managed Individual Documents

Doc Express and Bluebeam Co-Existence & Cooperation

- Creating & Managing Doc Express Links
- Creating Doc Express Share Links
- Utilizing Doc Express Share Links
- Linking to a Bluebeam Studio Session (virtual conference room)
- Linking to a Bluebeam Studio Project (virtual filing cabinet)
- Accessing Bluebeam Managed PDF Files with Revu or Bluebeam Drawings
- Linking to Specific Bluebeam Managed Individual Documents

